MESSAGE FROM THE EDITORS' DESKS

Dear Readers ,

We are extremely excited about the launch of our First Edition of Literati Lens. As the Editorial Heads of 'Literati Lens,' we are continually inspired by the enthusiasm of our students who contribute to each edition of the magazine. Their fresh and unbiased perspectives amaze us, and we cherish the opportunity to mentor them.

Ms. Priyam Yadav

Mr. Rohit Azad

'Literati Lens' serves as an excellent platform for students to express their creativity. They contribute by writing articles, illustrating the "art corner," capturing photos, composing poetry, and sharing their experiences related to the learning associated with each club. These activities not only enhance their skills but also provide valuable stress relief.

Literati Lens showcases the works of students from Junior KG to 5th grade, giving them recognition and inspiration. Even those who haven't contributed directly find motivation in reading their peers' work, something we have seen firsthand. Parents also benefit from learning about school activities through the magazine's various columns.

Inspired by the spirit of holistic development for our young Literians, we have initiated club activities and various events that encourage participation. These initiatives help the children develop essential skills while also creating cherished keepsakes. As a team, we always strive to capture the explicit frames where our young kids' zeal for participation is evident through their ecstatic smiles in numerous in-house activities or events. We are sure that after reading their masterpieces, sculpted with such innocence and purity, they will leave you awestruck and fill your mind with admiration.

We want to express our gratitude to our Principal, Headmistress, Coordinators of FSW and PPW as well as, editorial team including us and our creative In-charges from UPW (Ms. Shalini and Ms. Ranu) and FSW and UPW (Ms. Priya Sinha , Ms. Vishakha, Ms. Anita Sinha and Ms. Priya Chatterjee) for their hard work, for welcoming various write-ups from our budding creative writers. This support enables them to step into the world of literature, allowing them to hold pens or pencils in their tiny hands with an openness to explore their thoughts and share them with the world. We are giving them a platform to express what they feel and expect from us.

Remember, "There are no limits to what you can accomplish, except the limits you place on your own thinking."

Happy Reading !

“LET'S SNEAK INTO THE WORLD BLENDED WITH CREATIVITY AND EXCELLENCE OF PRE-PRIMARY AND UPPER PRIMARY WINGS.”

We at Litera Valley School believe in moulding the young minds at a foundational level, instilling in them STEM and KNOWLEDGE with PRACTICE. To give you a better hold of understanding our method of pouring out the knowledge to brighten these TINYTOTS, here are a few descriptions of the activities and events conducted in the past few months in their series of progression.

SHEEP ACTIVITY: BAA- BAA, FLUFFY SHEEP!

Our little artists had a wonderful time during the Sheep Activity! With tiny hands full of creativity, they pasted soft cotton around a sheep face cut-out to give it a warm, woolly appearance. The children were super excited to see their plain cut-outs transforming into fluffy sheep friends. The giggles, smiles, and proud faces made the activity even more joyful. It was a fun way to learn about farm animals while enjoying some art and craft !

JANMASHTAMI ACTIVITY: LITTLE CREATORS, LOTS OF LOVE FOR KRISHNA

Who says glue, glitter, and tiny hands don't make a perfect combination? Our Pre-Primary kids proved otherwise during the Janmashtami Craft Activity!

Equipped with paper crowns, shiny flutes, and enough sparkle to shine like Lord Krishna himself, the little artists went all out. To celebrate the birth of Lord Krishna, the tiny tots participated in a special craft activity where their imaginations came alive. The classroom transformed into a mini Vrindavan, glowing with laughter, art, and creativity. Each craft was unique, just like our children.

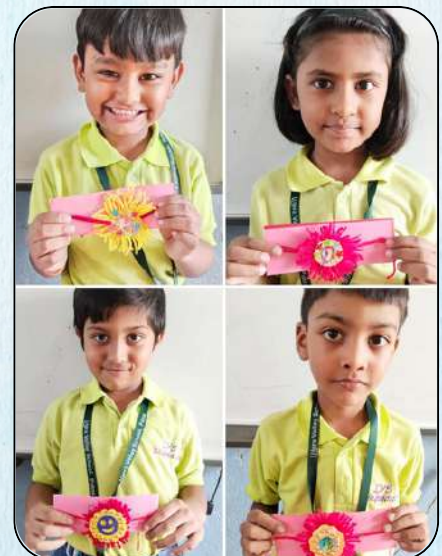

INDEPENDENCE DAY ACTIVITY: TINY FLAGS, BIG PRIDE!

Our children celebrated Independence Day with joy and enthusiasm. The little ones participated in special activities that helped them understand the importance of the day. With tiny flags in their hands, they learned about the three colors of our national flag and what each color signifies through art and craft. The celebration also included a soulful Deshbhakti Group Recitation in Hindi, with the children's voices filling the atmosphere with patriotism. Through these activities, they not only expressed their creativity but also learned the values of unity, peace, and love for the motherland.

RAKSHA BANDHAN ACTIVITY: THREADS OF LOVE AND SMILES OF JOY!

Our Pre-Primary kids celebrated Raksha Bandhan with joy and creativity. The little ones made beautiful Rakhis using paper, beads, and glitter. Each Rakhi was filled with love and sparkle, just like their little hearts. Through this activity, the children learned about the significance of Raksha Bandhan—a festival that celebrates the special bond between brothers and sisters. They understood that this festival is not only about tying a Rakhi but also about showing care, protection, and love for one another. The classroom was filled with happy smiles, shining Rakhis, and the sweet spirit of togetherness.

LEARNING BY DOING ACTIVITY: THE MAGICAL WATER CYCLE!

Do you know that water goes on a FUN TRIP every day?

This JOURNEY is called the WATER CYCLE!

When the sun shines, water from rivers, lakes, and ponds evaporates as VAPOUR

(It's like the water is RISING to the sky!).

In the sky, the VAPOUR condenses and forms FLUFFY CLOUDS.

When the clouds become too heavy, they announce, "TIME TO SHOWER!"

and the rain POURS DOWN.

The rainwater flows back into the rivers and lakes,

and THE JOURNEY begins all over again!

ISN'T IT MAGICAL, MY FRIENDS?

HINDI STORY TELLING ACTIVITY: ONCE UPON A TIME IN HINDI

The youngest storytellers of our school became little narrators during the Hindi Storytelling Activity. With confidence and enthusiasm, the young narrators shared short and simple tales in Hindi. Their sweet voices, expressions, and actions brought each story to life, making the audience smile and listen with joy. This activity not only boosted their speaking skills but also helped them express ideas, build confidence, and learn moral values in a fun way. It was heartwarming to see our tiny storytellers weave magic with their words and imagination!

“IT’S TIME TO DIVE INTO THE GLORY OF THE COMBINATION OF INTELLECT WITH DILIGENCE OF YOUNG TODDLERS AT THE FOUNDATIONAL STAGE WING (FSW).”

CHASING RAINBOWS: A COLOURFUL CRAFT ADVENTURE

The Rainbow Craft Activity for Grades 1 and 2 was a delightful celebration of creativity, imagination, and joy. Our young artists enthusiastically participated in creating colourful rainbows using paper, cotton, and crayons. With their tiny hands and big ideas, the children arranged the seven vibrant colours of the rainbow in the correct order, adding fluffy white clouds to complete their cheerful creations.

This activity not only filled the classroom with happiness but also helped the students learn about colour sequencing, develop fine motor skills, and appreciate the beauty of nature. It was heartwarming to see the young learners express themselves through colours and proudly showcase their own rainbows.

TINY HANDS, BIG BONDS: RAKHI CARD MAKING

In August, our young learners from Grades 1 and 2 celebrated the joyous occasion of Raksha-Bandhan through a delightful Rakhi Card Making activity. This event provided the children with a wonderful opportunity to express their love and creativity by crafting heartfelt cards for their siblings.

Equipped with colourful paper, glitter, stickers, and boundless imagination, the students poured their affection into each card. The activity not only honed their artistic skills but also deepened their understanding of the festival's significance — celebrating the cherished bond between brothers and sisters.

The vibrant cards, adorned with personal messages and intricate designs, showcased the children's enthusiasm and creativity.

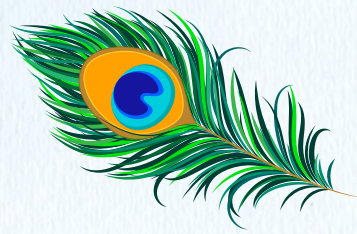

SALUTING OUR HEROES: INDEPENDENCE DAY ROLE PLAY

On Independence Day, our enthusiastic students from Grades 1 and 2 stepped into the roles of India's legendary freedom fighters, bringing history to life through an energetic role-play activity. The little ones confidently portrayed great leaders such as Mahatma Gandhi, Subhash Chandra Bose, Bhagat Singh, and Rani Laxmi Bai, reminding everyone of their courage, sacrifices, and love for the nation. Dressed in traditional attire and delivering powerful dialogues with expressive performances, the children captivated the audience, filling the hall with a sense of patriotism.

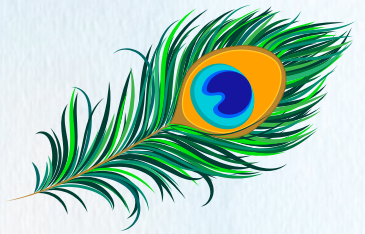

The event was not only a tribute to our freedom fighters but also a valuable learning experience for our young learners. By enacting these iconic personalities, the students gained a deeper understanding of India's struggle for independence and the values of bravery, unity, and sacrifice.

Teachers and parents beamed with pride as they witnessed the confidence and enthusiasm displayed by the children. The activity truly reflected the spirit of patriotism and inspired everyone to carry forward the legacy of our national heroes. Such events instill cultural pride, strengthen character, and encourage students to appreciate the freedom they enjoy today.

CELEBRATING KRISHNA'S PLAYFULNESS: MAKHAN MATKA DECORATION ACTIVITY

On the joyous occasion of Janmashtami, students from Grades 1 and 2 participated in a delightful Makhani-Matka Decoration Activity, celebrating the playful spirit of Lord Krishna. With colourful paints, glitter, ribbons, and mirrors, the tiny hands transformed simple earthen pots into vibrant 'matkas' that symbolize Krishna's love for butter. Their excitement and creativity shone through as each decorated matka became a beautiful piece of art.

This activity not only enhanced the students' artistic skills but also helped them understand the cultural and spiritual significance of Janmashtami. The teachers guided the students while encouraging them to express their imagination freely. The beautifully decorated 'matkas' filled the atmosphere with festive charm and devotion.

Through such joyful activity, students not only connect with traditions but also learn the values of love, sharing, and devotion that Lord Krishna embodies.

TIME TO SLEEP

Bow-Bow says the dog,
Baa-Baa says the sheep,
Meow-Meow says the cat,
It's time to go to sleep.

The sun is going home,
The moon is in the sky,
Butterfly and bees,
Have said, 'Goodbye'.

Harshita Kumari, 3-A

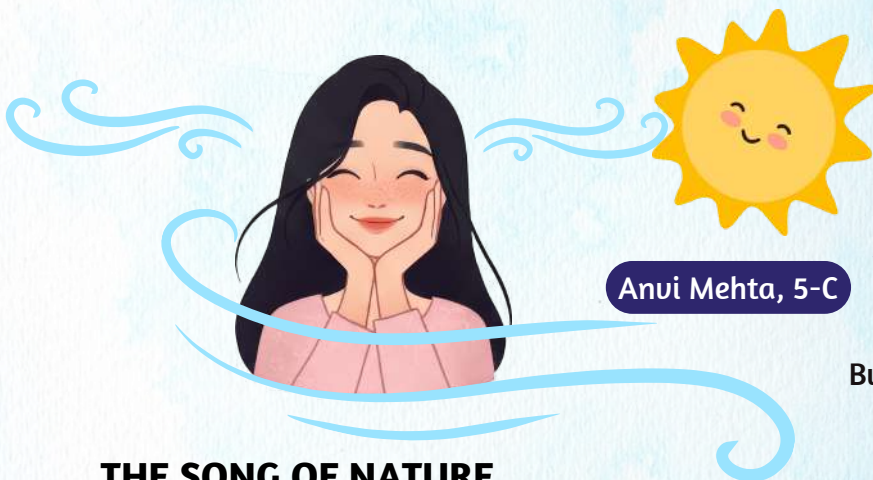

THE MAGIC OF SMILE

A smile is like the morning sun,
It shines so bright on everyone.

It starts so small upon your face,
Yet fills the world with gentle grace.

It needs no coins, it needs no pay,
But makes the dark clouds drift away.

A smile can start a happy trend,
It's something you can always lend.

Anvi Mehta, 5-C

THE SONG OF NATURE

The trees are dancing in the breeze,
The rivers hum like honey bees,
The flowers smile in colours bright,
The stars wake up to kiss the night.
The mountains were crowned with the snow,
The grass feels in the sunshine glow.
The small drop of rain begins to sing,
And paints the earth with drops of spring.
Oh, nature, you have a lovely friend,
Your beauty has no start or end,
I will care for you both big and small,
Because you give your love to all.

Divya Yadav, 5-C

"SHORT STORIES: IF A STORY IS IN YOU, IT HAS COME OUT!"

Satvika Rai, 3-C

JANMASTHAMI

Once upon a time, in the dark prison of Mathura, a special baby boy was born. His name was Krishna, and he was the eighth son of Devaki and Vasudeva. King Kansa, Devaki's cruel brother, had imprisoned them because a prophecy said Krishna would be the end of him. That night, with the help of some divine magic, Vasudeva carried baby Krishna across the stormy Yamuna River to Gokul. He left Krishna with his friend, Nanda, and his wife, Yashoda, and brought their baby girl back to the prison. Kansa tried to kill the baby girl, but she flew away and told him that Krishna would be his end. Krishna grew up in Gokul playing pranks and stealing butter while Kansa remained worried. Finally, Krishna returned to Mathura as a young man and defeated Kansa, fulfilling the prophecy and bringing peace to the land.

RHYTHM OF LEARNING

Mishika Manish, 5-C

Meenakshi was very intelligent. She always passed her examination with good marks. This made her very proud. She usually studied very little on normal days. During examination days, she studied tirelessly, day and night, and in this way, she managed to score good marks in her class. Her father, Mr. Sagar, always suggested her to study consistently and give proper time for revision, but she always ignored her father's advice.

Once, during her PT1 examination, she fell sick, and the doctor advised her complete bed rest. Now she was unable to prepare for her examination and could not secure good position in her class. She was very upset and began to blame her sickness for the poor performance. Her father put his hand on her head very lovingly and explained, "It's not all about your sickness, but, my sweetheart, you don't understand the Rhythm of Learning." Her father explained,

"Consistency in study helps you learn new things and acquire knowledge. Consistency in revision also helps to store information in the long run. These two together make the Rhythm of Learning."

Now, Meenakshi understood what her father wanted to say. That day, she also understood her areas of shortcomings and became consistent in her studies, and gave proper time for revision. Eventually, in her final examination, she scored good marks and topped her class.

Moral of the story: Consistent efforts make great results.

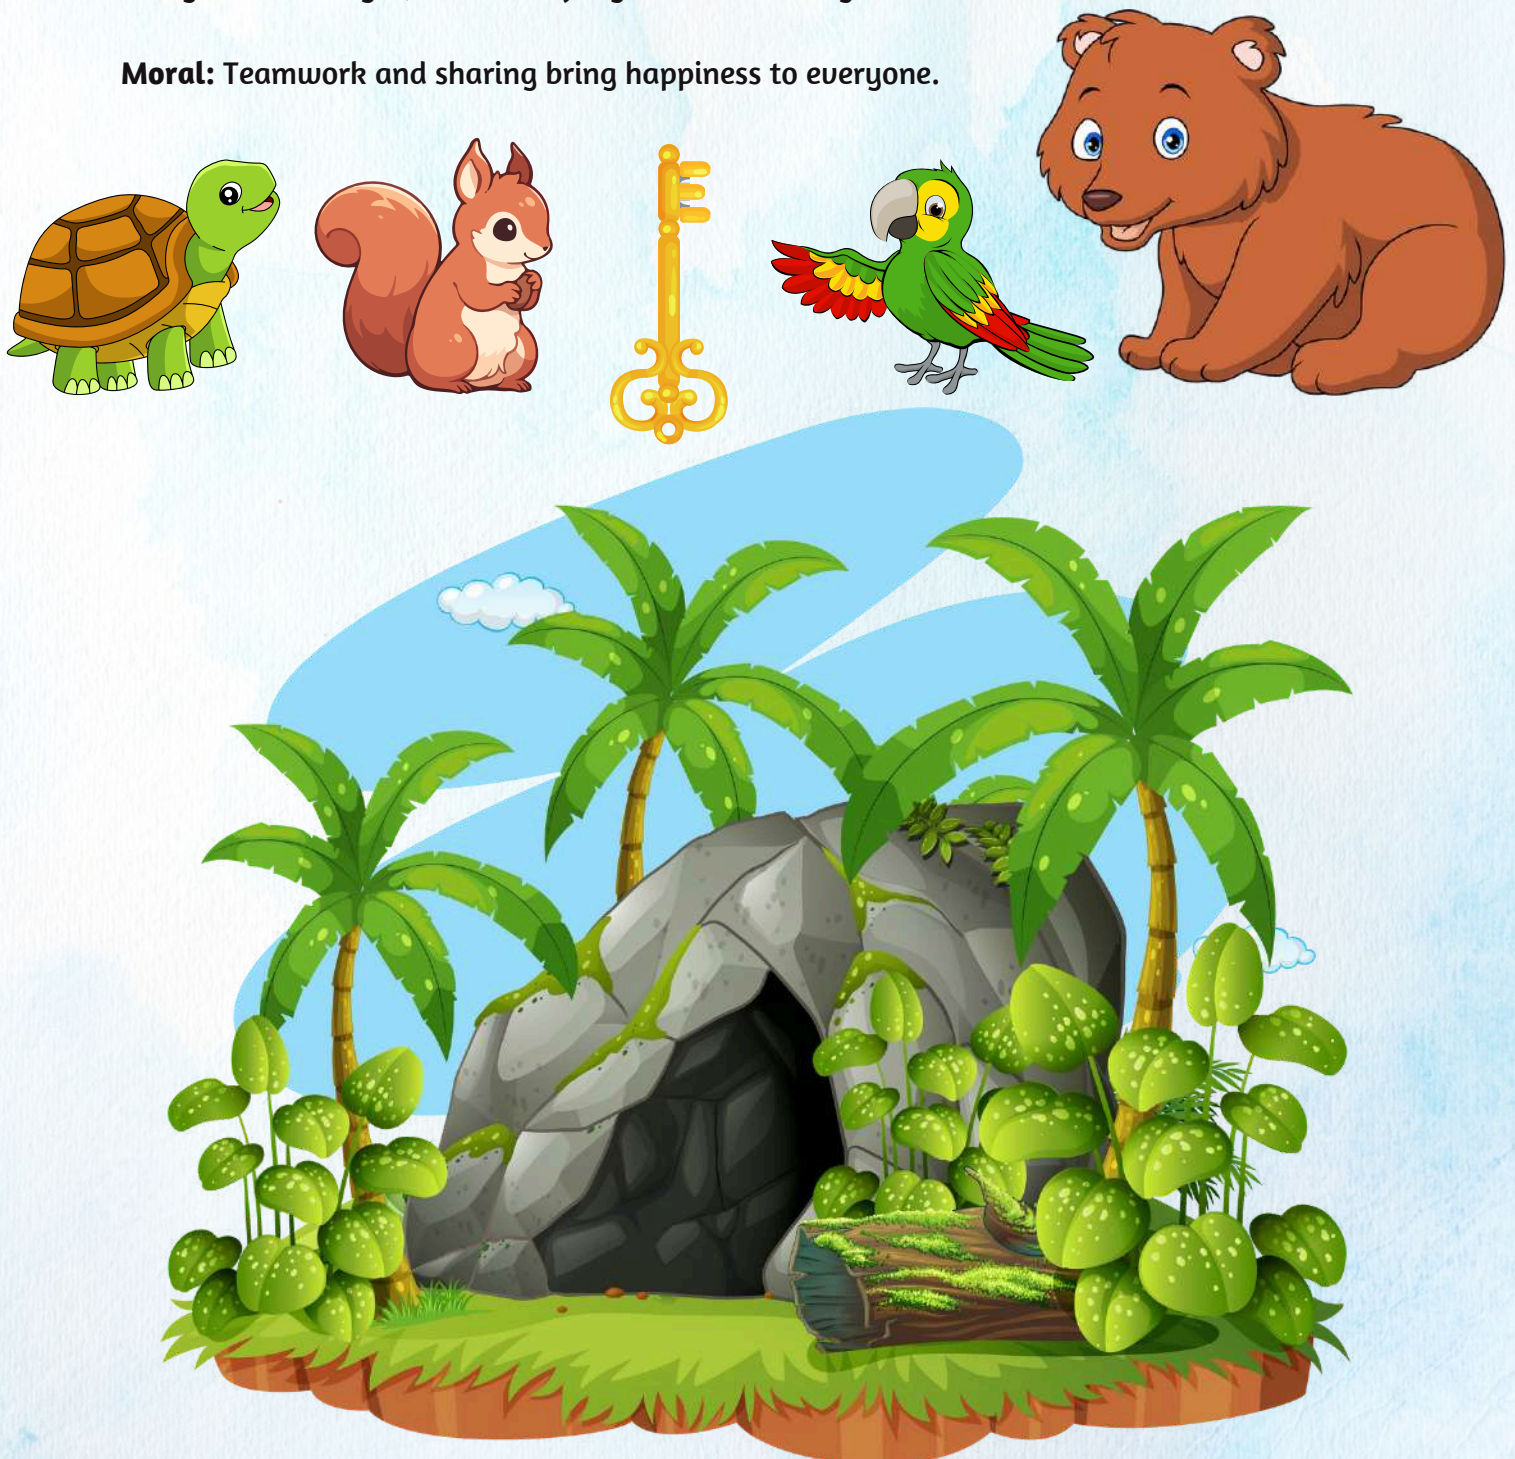

THE ADVENTURE OF FOUR FRIENDS

Auya Nayan, 3-D

In a peaceful jungle, four friends - Tara the Tortoise, Sara the Squirrel, Bholu the Bear, and Piku the Parrot- lived happily. One day, Sara found a shiny golden key under a tree. She showed it to her friends. "Wow! This must open something really special", said Piku, flapping his wings with excitement. "Let's find out together," added Bholu. The four friends started their adventure. They walked through the Jungle until they reached a big old cave with a locked door. Tara, though slow, encouraged everyone not to give up. Sara quickly climbed up to check the door. Piku tried to see from above, and Bholu pushed rocks around it.

Finally, they put the golden key inside the lock. Click! The door opened! Inside, they didn't find treasure of gold or jewels, but something even more precious - baskets of delicious fruits and nuts for all the animals of the forest. The friends happily shared the food with everyone. That night, the whole jungle celebrated together.

Moral: Teamwork and sharing bring happiness to everyone.

MY INDIA, MY PRIDE

Vanya Sinha, 5-D

India is a land of rich culture, ancient traditions, and remarkable diversity that fills every heart with pride. From the snowy peaks of the Himalayas to the golden deserts of Rajasthan, from the lush greenery of Kerala to the sacred waters of the Ganga, every corner of India tells a story of beauty and heritage. It is the birthplace of great leaders, saints, scientists, and freedom fighters who have shaped the nation and inspired the world.

The unity in diversity—living together in harmony—makes India truly unique. Our history of struggle and sacrifice, combined with our achievements in science, technology, and space, reflects the spirit of resilience and progress. As an Indian, I feel proud of the values of peace, brotherhood, and knowledge that my homeland embodies. It is my identity, my inspiration, and my pride. I feel blessed to be an Indian because India is not just a country; it is our pride.

MY FAVOURITE SEASON

Shaswat Agarwal, 3-E

My favorite season is spring. During spring, the weather is pleasant, and flowers bloom everywhere. I love admiring colourful flowers like roses, lilies, and sunflowers. The trees grow new leaves and look beautiful. The warm sunshine makes me feel happy, and we can play outside without feeling too hot or too cold. Spring is a season of new life and growth. I enjoy the spring festivals and holidays that I celebrate with my family and friends. The spring season makes me feel refreshed and excited. I truly love this season. It's the best time of the year!

मैं माता को प्रणाम करता हूँ
और गुरु को भी सादर प्रणाम करता हूँ।।1।।
मैं हमेशा पढ़ता हूँ
और हमेशा प्रिय बोलता हूँ।।2।।
सभी का हित करना चाहिए
और सभी का शुभ (अच्छा) करना चाहिए।।3।।
ईश्वर को मेरा सादर प्रणाम है।
और गुरु को भी सादर प्रणाम।।4।।
हमेशा नीति और सत्य की मार्ग पर चलना चाहिए / या चलता हूँ
मैं ऐसा कार्य करूँ कि धरती माँ की पीड़ा हर लूँ।।5।।
मैं साधु की प्रण की धारण करूँ
मैं सत्य कथा या कीर्ति का सृजन निर्माण करूँ।।6।।
मैं ईश्वर को आदर सहित प्रणाम करता हूँ

सच्चा मित्र

Manas Modi, 5-D

बहुत समय पहले एक पेड़ पर तोते का एक जोड़ा रहता था। उसी पेड़ के छेद में एक बूढ़ा साँप भी रहता था। साँप इतना कमजोर था कि भोजन की तलाश में बाहर नहीं जा सकता था। इसलिए तोता उसके लिए कुछ खाना छेद के पास छोड़ देता था। साँप तोते का आभारी था। एक दिन एक गिद्ध तोते के ऊपर मंडरा रहा था। तभी एक शिकारी वहाँ आया और उसने दोनों तोते में से एक पर अपना तीर चला दिया लेकिन साँप ने देखा कि उसके दोस्त खतरे में है तब उसने उन्हें बचाने के लिए शिकारी के पैर को काट लिया। साँप के काटने से शिकारी का लक्ष्य चूक गया और तीर गिद्ध पर लग गया। उनकी जान बचाकर साँप ने दिखाया कि वह भी सच्चा दोस्त था।

THE IMPORTANCE OF ACTIVITY CLUBS: STUDENTS' ANECDOTES ABOUT THEIR EXPERIENCE OF THE PROCUREMENT OF UNDISCOVERED SKILLS WITHIN THEM

Clubs are essential for our skill development. They focus on how to enhance our abilities in various activities, such as karate and cricket. Some clubs help improve self-defense skills, like those that teach martial arts techniques. Others focus on enhancing cooking skills, such as Fireless Cooking, while some promote health through sports like football. All these clubs contribute to developing different skills in us, which is very important for growth and well-being.

Aarav Bhardwaj , 4-E

Clubs are vibrant and magnificent organizations that teach us about the fields we are passionate about, beyond just academic disciplines. They provide us with the opportunity to explore our interests and learn from one another. There is a sense of closeness in school that clubs foster, creating a friendly and supportive environment. Clubs allow us to connect with new people and share experiences, making every effort to participate equally important. Engaging in club activities enhances our school experience and helps us grow both personally and socially.

PATRIOTIC WEEK: A FESTIVITY OF PRIDE AND VALOUR IGNITING IN THE YOUNG HEARTS

A whole week was devoted to making our students aware of the relentless struggle and sacrifices of countless freedom fighters. Our young future took immense pride to celebrate this whole period of a week in the mood of festivity. The students paid tribute to our heroes who always envisioned a sovereign country by dressing themselves in the attire of their role models. A few other groups of talented students, with their culinary techniques, demonstrated their love for their nation, presenting an art of fireless cooking coloured with the tri-colour theme. On the other end, a few were engaged in decorating the entrance of their classes with vibrant and colourful torans. It was a jubilant experience to observe the shimmering eyes of our students sparkling with pride and unity. The atmosphere was filled with the spectrum of nationalism being radiated by our young and energetic minds to different corners of our school.
