EDITORIAL

Dear Readers,

Greetings from Campus Chronicles!

The month of August has been a chapter of pride, progress, and celebration for LVS – one that truly reflects our spirit of excellence and holistic growth.

We began on a high note with the prestigious RIDS Certification being awarded to LVS – a remarkable achievement that stands as a testament to our commitment to quality, responsibility, and educational standards. This milestone has further strengthened our resolve to set benchmarks for others to follow.

Adding to our infrastructural growth, the inauguration of the LVS Conference Room has gifted us a state-of-the-art space for dialogue, discussions, and decisions. This facility will undoubtedly enrich the academic and cultural environment of our school.

On the creative front, the Inter-House Poetry Recitation Competition gave our students a wonderful platform to express thoughts, emotions, and imagination with grace and confidence. It was truly a celebration of language and expression.

Our learners also shone brightly beyond the classroom. We take great pride in announcing that LVS emerged as the Cluster Winner in Boxing and Aesthetics, displaying both physical prowess and artistic brilliance. To add to this, our students brought further glory as winners at Synergy hosted by Radiant International School, proving once again that LVS talent is versatile and exceptional.

The month was equally vibrant with activities that blended fun and learning. The Super Splash event filled the campus with joy and energy, reminding us that celebrations are as important as academics. Meanwhile, the Book Fair at our school inspired our students to explore the magic of books and expand their horizons of knowledge.

Indeed, August has been a month of memorable achievements and enriching experiences. Each accomplishment reflects the collective effort of our students, teachers, and the entire LVS family. With such milestones behind us, we look forward to the coming months with greater determination and higher aspirations.

Warm regards,
