EDITORIAL

Dear Readers,

This edition of Campus Chronicles is a proud celebration of the spirit, talent, and achievements of our Litera Valley School family. From academic brilliance to cultural vibrance, innovation, and sportsmanship, our students continue to shine on every stage.

Our young innovators impressed everyone at Innovation Day with robots, renewable energy projects, and creative exhibits, while Deutsch Fest 2025 brought the richness of German language and culture alive on campus. In intellectual pursuits, our students excelled at Hunar – Crafting Imagination, winning top prizes in quizzes, debates, MUN, and art. Our swimmers made waves at the Fr. Marshal Moran Inter-School Swimming Competition, and our musicians hit the right note by clinching 1st place at the Zonal Torrins Battle of Bands for the third consecutive year.

We also celebrated our traditions and values with Durga Puja and Vishwakarma Puja, honouring culture, gratitude, and the unsung heroes of our school community.

Adding to the pride, Litera Valley School has been ranked No. 1 in Bihar and 8th in India for Holistic Education, and 3rd in Bihar in the Co-Ed Senior Secondary category by Education World 2025–26—a recognition of our commitment to nurturing confident, compassionate, and globally-minded students.

As you explore this edition, witness the creativity, dedication, and excellence that define Litera Valley School. Here, curiosity meets opportunity, and every achievement is a stepping stone toward a brighter tomorrow.

Yours
Ibrahim Nami

The award ceremony was attended by Hon'ble Health Minister of Bihar, Sh Mangal Pandey, who congratulated the leaders for their mentorship and contribution to the development of India through their dynamic leadership and visionary educational programs. He praised their dedication and unwavering efforts in ensuring sound education for students. The Jagran EduSolV Awards aim to recognize and celebrate excellence in education, aligning with the National Education Policy (NEP 2020) and the transformative role of technology in shaping education.

LITERA VALLEY SCHOOL EARNS PRESTIGIOUS BRITISH COUNCIL RIDS AWARD 2025–28

"Do not go where the path may lead; go instead where there is no path and leave a trail." — Ralph Waldo Emerson

We're thrilled to share that Litera Valley School, Patna, has been certified with the Recognition of International Dimensions in Schools (RIDS) Award 2025–28 by the British Council!

The award ceremony took place on August 25, 2025, at Le Meridien, New Delhi, where our HM, Ms. Sujata Bhadani, and RIDS Teacher Coordinator, Ms. Shilpi, received this prestigious honour.

A Big Achievement:

- Only 80 schools out of 200 across India received this recognition.
- Litera Valley School is the only school from Bihar to achieve this distinction!

This award is a testament to the vision of our Chairman Sir, Chairperson Ma'am, Principal Sir, and the relentless efforts of our students and dedicated teachers.

We're proud to be nurturing global citizens — young leaders who embody empathy, innovation, and cross-cultural understanding.

PRE-PRIMARY STARS BRING ALIVE THE FESTIVE SPIRIT OF DURGA PUJA

This festive season, our little stars in the Pre-Primary Wing celebrated the vibrant spirit of Durga Puja with great enthusiasm and creativity!

With lots of creativity and joy, the tiny tots made beautiful Durga Maa masks, torans, lotus flowers, and decorative embellishments, expressing their love for the festival in the most adorable way.

Their bright smiles, little hands full of colours, and innocent expressions truly brought the festive vibes alive.

It was a day filled with fun, learning, and cultural celebration, helping them understand the importance of this beautiful festival in a playful way.

CELEBRATING THE UNSUNG HEROES OF LVS ON VISHWAKARMA PUJA

On the auspicious occasion of Vishwakarma Puja (17 September 2025), the Student Council of Litera Valley School, Patna, organized a heartfelt program to honour our dedicated support staff.

The students highlighted the significance of the day, paying tribute to Lord Vishwakarma, the divine architect of the universe. The celebration was marked with devotion, reverence, and a deep appreciation for the hard work and commitment of our support staff.

Highlights of the Celebration:

- A special assembly was conducted by the students to acknowledge the dedication and unwavering support of the staff.
- A short cultural celebration was organized to bring joy and warmth to the occasion.
- Prayers were offered for the well-being, progress, and safety of the support staff and their families.

The event was a beautiful expression of gratitude and respect for the individuals who work tirelessly behind the scenes to ensure the smooth functioning of our school.

LVS STRENGTHENS GLOBAL TIES THROUGH GERMAN LANGUAGE EDUCATION INITIATIVE

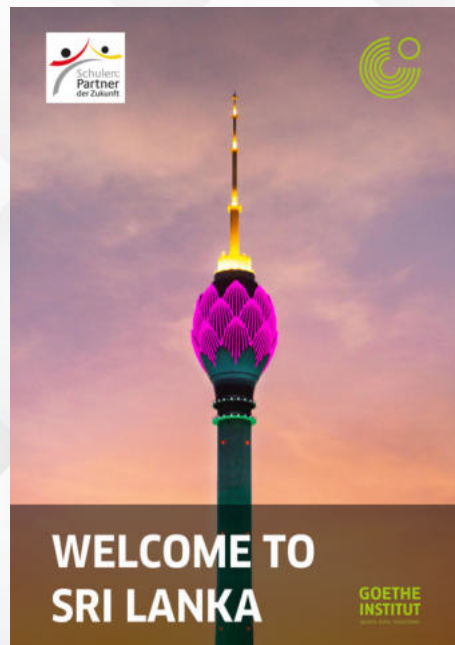

We're thrilled to share that our Principal, Mr. Desmond Jude D'Monte, represented our school at the prestigious School Leaders' Conference South Asia 2025 in Colombo, Sri Lanka!

The conference, organized by the Goethe-Institut, focused on the importance of German language learning in shaping students' careers and academic profiles. Our Principal joined 100 esteemed leaders from South Asia to explore opportunities for collaboration, growth, and innovation.

Key Takeaways:

- German language learning can unlock world-class education and international career opportunities
- Building partnerships between schools can foster cultural exchange and academic excellence
- Digital matchmaking can facilitate collaborations between schools in South Asia

We're proud to be part of this journey towards academic excellence and cultural exchange!

DIVE INTO EXCELLENCE, CONQUER THE DEPTHS OF LIFE!

The Infinity Pool at Litera Valley School, Patna, was inaugurated by Chairman Sir and Chairperson Ma'am. Infinity Pool is more than just a facility - it's a gateway to confidence, discipline, and a lifelong skill. As our students learn to swim, they'll develop:

- Resilience: Overcoming fears and pushing limits
- Discipline: Mastering techniques and safety protocols
- Confidence: Building self-assurance in and out of the pool
- Perseverance: Achieving goals and striving for excellence

Complementing our existing 25m pool, the Infinity Pool provides a perfect platform for our younger students to hone their swimming skills in a safe and nurturing environment. As Chairman Sir aptly said, "Today they swim 15 metres, tomorrow they'll conquer the English Channel!" Let's empower our students to dive into excellence and make waves in the world!

SCIENCE MEETS IMAGINATION AT LVS INNOVATION DAY 2025

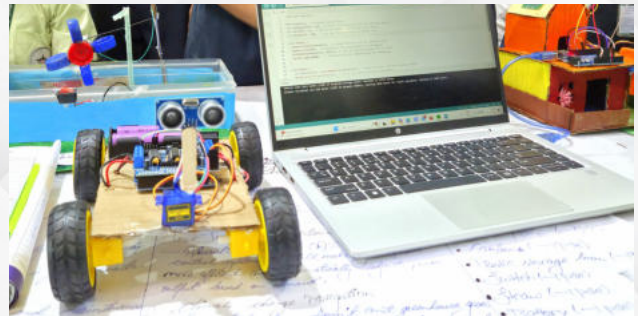

'Scientific Innovation is the base for modernity.' To encourage young minds not only to learn scientific theories but also to demonstrate their use, Litera Valley School Patna organises 'Innovation Day' every year for Classes 6-12. This year the popular event was organised on 11th October. The exhibition was inaugurated by the Principal Mr Desmond Jude D'Monte and Headmistress Ms Sujata Bhadani. The students of Classes 6-8 focussed on projects on Vikasit Bharat Campaign, while Classes 9-12 participated in a Robo Race with self made robots.

Mr Girindra Jha, Mr. Rajesh Kumar, Ms Manisha Soni and Mr. Anindya Chatterjee were the moderators of the event. The parents witnessed the creativity and talent of their wards with much satisfaction.

The models were all well planned and the functions were meticulously explained by the participants. The models which drew the largest crowds were: Rain Water Harvesting, Transfer of Heat into Electricity, A Hydro- Energy Project, Solar Cars, Static Models of Chandrayaan and PSLV Models.

The event of the day was the Robo Race. It was very exciting as the Remote Controlled Self-Made Robots completed their journey down the tricky track with various difficult patches: pebbles, thorns, bridges and zig-zag paths with obstacles.

The best models were selected by the judges and the creators were rewarded. The event was a grand success and will continue to motivate young minds to experiment and learn.

THREE CHEERS FOR LVS! HATTRICK VICTORY AT TORRINS BATTLE OF BANDS

We are what we repeatedly do. Excellence, then, is not an act, but a habit.” — Aristotle
Once again, our school Litera Valley secured the 1st prize in the Zonal Level Torrins Battle of Bands held at Trinity Global School. This is the third consecutive year when Litera Valley has bagged the first position. The mentors, Mr. Vikash Solanki and Mr. Niranjan Darnal supported them to win the award.

DEUTSCH FEST 2025: LEARNING, LAUGHTER AND A TASTE OF GERMANY AT LVS

"Ohne Fleiß kein Preis" – a timeless German proverb that beautifully encapsulates the spirit of hard work and dedication. And speaking of spirit, let's dive into the whirlwind of fun and learning that was Deutsch Fest 2025: A Taste of Germany at Our School.

Imagine the vibrant energy of Litera Valley School, Patna, as it pulsed with the rhythms of the rich culture, language, and traditions of Germany on 16th October 2025. The event was set in motion with a warm welcome ceremony, where Headmistress Ms. Sujata Bhadani felicitated the Chief Guest, Ms. Anjali Singh, Chairperson of Litera Valley School. In a beautiful gesture, they lit the lamp and unfurled the German flag, declaring the event open and setting the tone for a day filled with cultural exploration and joy.

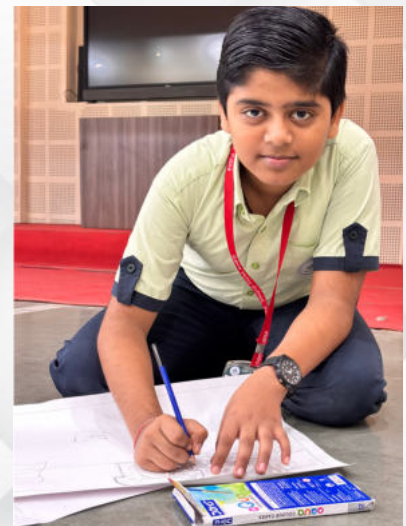

Students from Grades V to XII embarked on a fantastical journey, immersing themselves in the essence of Germany through a kaleidoscope of events. From the brain-tingling Spellwettbewerb (Spell Bee Competition) to the tantalizing aromas wafting from the Cooking Contest - Deutscher Kochwettbewerb, every moment was a testament to the students' zeal and creativity. The Poster Making Contest turned the school walls into a canvas of German landscapes and idioms, while the Deutscher Redewettbewerb: GIC speeches and presentations peeled back layers of Germany's profound heritage and culture.

But wait – the Halloween Fashion Parade was the pièce de résistance ! Students and teachers alike gasped in delight (and mock terror!) as spooky avatars sashayed down the ramp, blending eerie vibes with unmissable charm. And to keep the collective spirit soaring, quiz rounds and games injected laughter and teamwork into the mix. Laughter and learning blended seamlessly making Deutsch Fest 2025 an unforgettable odyssey through German culture.

Kudos to the incredible participants, the masterminds (student organizers) and the German Department (Mr Aditya Pathak and Ms Monalisa Bhowmik) for sculpting an unforgettable experience under the guiding light of our Principal, Mr Desmond Jude D Monte.

Deutsch Fest 2025 proved yet again that when curiosity meets culture, the results are simply dazzling.

LVS, PATNA: RANKED NO. 1 IN BIHAR, NO. 8 IN INDIA (HOLISTIC EDUCATION)
& 3RD IN BIHAR (CO-ED SENIOR SECONDARY)
- EDUCATION WORLD INDIA SCHOOL RANKING

We are delighted to share that Litera Valley School, Patna has been ranked as Bihar's No. 1 School and among India's Top 8 Schools in Holistic Education, as well as the 3rd Best Co-ed Senior Secondary School in Bihar, in the prestigious Education World India School Rankings (EWISR) 2025–26.

This outstanding recognition celebrates our unwavering commitment to holistic education—where academic excellence, creativity, discipline, and compassion come together to nurture confident, empathetic, and future-ready individuals.

Since 2007, EWISR has set the benchmark for educational excellence in India, evaluating over 4,000 schools across 518 cities on 14 key parameters. Its rigorous, research-based methodology ensures credibility and fairness in every ranking.

This remarkable milestone would not have been possible without the visionary leadership of Shri Amit Prakash (Chairman) and Anjali Singh (Chairperson), whose constant support and belief in our mission inspire us every day. We extend heartfelt gratitude to our dedicated teachers, administrative, and support staff for their passion and tireless efforts in shaping young minds.

At Litera Valley School, we remain committed to delivering world-class education that empowers students to excel academically, think creatively, and lead with compassion.

A proud moment for the entire Litera Valley School, Patna family!
