Patriotic Week: Patriotism in Full Bloom

Litera Valley School radiated with pride and patriotism as students from Grades III to V celebrated Patriotic Week from 10th to 14th August. The four-day celebration beautifully blended creativity, learning, and love for the nation.

The week began with a Pledge Drive, where students penned heartfelt promises for India's progress, followed by a Tricolour Lunch, with lunchboxes reflecting the hues of the national flag. Showcasing their artistry, students participated in the Monument Miniature Activity, recreating iconic landmarks, while the Face Mask Parade honoured the sacrifices of our brave freedom fighters.

Adding to the fervour, classrooms were adorned with tricolour crafts and patriotic décor, turning the school into a vibrant canvas of national pride. The celebrations not only inspired creativity but also instilled a deeper sense of responsibility and belonging among young Literians.

At Litera Valley, celebrating freedom means embracing values, nurturing pride, and inspiring young hearts to dream big for the nation.

Where Talent Meets fun and festivity

"Where Talent Meets Fun and Festivity"

Literary Valley School, Patna, hosted the annual event of FLAIR, the interschool cultural fest for the junior classes. During this exciting event of 2 days, the kids showcased their talent, starting from the 29th of August and culminating on the 30th of August. The event had been critically planned and has been lined up with a list of events, based on our buzzing and captivating theme for this year, "SPACE ODYSSEY," keeping in mind that each and every kid gets a chance to grace the stage with their unique talent. This time we have a rousing list of events, bursting with the most fascinating and intriguing competitions for our students to prove themselves and amaze the audience throughout this saga of creative adventures for 2 days.

We will be having contests such as:

- MY IDOL: The characterisation contest.
- RHYTHM: The English recitation competition.
- RACHNA: Where the students will use their art tools to express themselves.
- OFF THE CUFF: Where our speakers will have the freedom of words.
- SARGAM: The Hindi choir contest.
- NAVRAS: The Hindi group recitation competition.
- THE DOODLE FIESTA: The stirring opportunity for the artists to glide their pens on the paper.
- THE NO FLAME FEAST: Where our young master chefs will show off their culinary skills.
- STORY SCAPE: A pop-up storytelling art contest.
- NUKKAD NATAK: The street play contest.
- VISION: To test the curious minds, a general quiz contest.
- NRI TYA: A group dance contest.

The thrill and excitement were next level this year. Students from various schools participated in awe and shock simultaneously, in the most beautiful way possible.

CLASH OF HOUSES WHERE CHAMPIONS RISE

Litera Valley School came alive with energy on Saturday, 23rd August, as students from different houses competed in the much-awaited Interhouse Sports Competitions. The day was packed with action, enthusiasm, and a strong display of talent across three exciting events - Badminton, Swimming, and Table Tennis.

The atmosphere quickly heated up with the preliminary rounds of badminton and table tennis, where quick reflexes, sharp focus, and competitive spirit set the stage for some thrilling matches. While the early rounds decided the finalists, the grand finals of both sports were held on 27th August, adding to the anticipation and excitement across the houses.

The Swimming Finals brought the day to its peak, where the pool became an arena of speed and endurance. Each race was fiercely contested—splash after splash, students surged forward with determination while cheers from the sidelines created an electrifying atmosphere. Some swimmers led with steady strokes, while others made last-minute comebacks, keeping everyone on edge until the very finish.

It wasn't only about winning medals—it was about testing limits, celebrating each other's efforts, and creating memories that will last far beyond the final whistle. The Interhouse Sports Competitions this year left the entire school inspired and reminded everyone that true victory lies in unity, perseverance, and passion.

The competitions truly embodied resilience, teamwork, and passion, leaving behind unforgettable moments of triumph, unity, and inspiration for all Literians.

A Step Into The German World

"FIT IN DEUTSCH-1" was held at LITERA VALLEY SCHOOL, PATNA conducted by the GOETHE-INSTITUTE, KOLKATA on 25th August, 2025. Many students of our school have appeared in the examination, grabbing their early academic opportunities. This exam opens the doors for our students to get a chance to study in Germany.

The examination was held in two categories:

1. Goethe-Zertifikat A1: This exam confirms basic language skills and 13 students of our school have appeared.
2. Goethe-Zertifikat B1: This exam confirms advanced language skills and 2 students of our school have appeared for this exam.

Goethe Institute examinations are globally recognised as a standard for German language proficiency, offering benefits such as university admissions in Germany, improved career opportunities in German-speaking countries, and a greater ability to communicate effectively in a foreign language. The certificate provides proof of German skills valued by employers and universities. It also benefits in facilitating the visa process and provides professional recognition worldwide.

RIDS Recognition by British Councils

It's a moment of immense pride and joy for all of us at Litera Valley School, Patna! Our school has been awarded the prestigious Recognition of International Dimensions in Schools (RIDS) Programme Certification by the British Council.

This remarkable achievement wouldn't have been possible without the visionary guidance of our Principal, the constant support of our Head Mistress Ma'am, and the dedicated efforts of the core team—Ms. Shilpi, Ms. Shreya, Ms. Priya Sinha, and Mr. Gaurav Das Gupta—along with the tireless contribution of the entire staff.

What makes this achievement even more special is that out of 200 participating schools across the country, only 86 schools were able to secure this Certificate of Excellence. And yes, LVS proudly stands tall among them.

This milestone highlights the true spirit of our institution—commitment to quality education, global learning practices, and an unwavering pursuit of excellence. As students, we feel inspired and motivated to aim higher and carry forward the legacy of our school.

Heartfelt congratulations to our respected Chairman Sir, Chairperson Ma'am, Principal Sir, HM Ma'am, the core team, and all teachers for making this dream come true. Truly, this is a victory for the entire Litera family!

LVS Secures Runners-Up at Synergy

Litera Valley School students showcased their talent, creativity, and confidence at Synergy 2025, hosted by Radiant International School on 22nd and 23rd August. The two-day inter-school cultural fest witnessed enthusiastic participation across a wide range of competitions, from dance and theatre to quizzes and talent-based events.

The Litera Valley team performed brilliantly, securing top positions in multiple categories. Their power-packed performance in the Folk Dance category earned them the 1st Prize, leaving the audience spellbound with vibrant expressions and synchronised moves. In the Nukkad Natak, the team delivered a socially impactful and engaging street play that also bagged the 1st Prize, showcasing both powerful acting and a strong message.

In addition, our students displayed their intellectual sharpness and quick wit in other events. They achieved the 2nd Prize in Hunt and Peck, highlighting their skills in fast and accurate problem-solving, and also clinched the 2nd Prize in Bazinga, a competition testing presence of mind through quizzing.

LVS emerged as the overall runners-up in the event. The outstanding performance brought pride to the institution, reinforcing its reputation as a hub of excellence in both cultural and intellectual spheres.
