LVS Patna Rises to National Prominence

- Ranked No. 1 in Bihar and 8th in India in Holistic Education
- Ranked 3rd in Bihar in the Co-ed Senior Secondary Category by Education World

Litera Valley School, Patna, proudly celebrates yet another milestone of excellence! The school has been recognized by Education World in the India School Grand Jury Rankings 2025–26, earning the titles of No. 1 in Bihar and 8th in India in Holistic Education, as well as 3rd in Bihar in the Co-ed Senior Secondary Category in the Education World India School Rankings (EWISR) 2025–26.

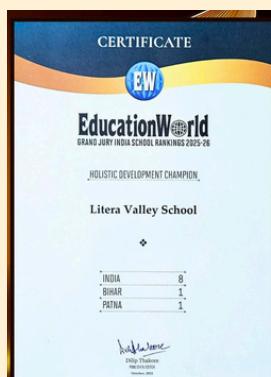

These prestigious recognitions are a testament to the school's unwavering commitment to holistic growth, where academic excellence, creativity, discipline, and compassion harmoniously blend to nurture confident, capable, and compassionate individuals.

The Education World rankings, regarded as one of the most credible benchmarks of school excellence since 2007, evaluate over 4,000 schools across 518 cities and towns in India based on 14 parameters of educational excellence, through a rigorous and transparent research process.

Our Principal, Mr. Desmond Jude D'Monte, received the honors on behalf of the school's Management at The Pullman, Aerocity, New Delhi, amidst an august gathering of eminent educationists from across the country. He expressed heartfelt gratitude to Sh. Amit Prakash, Chairman, and Anjali Singh, Chairperson, for their visionary leadership and constant encouragement. He also lauded the Headmistress, Coordinators, dedicated teachers, administrative team, and students whose collective efforts made this remarkable success possible.

This achievement stands as a shining reflection of Litera Valley School's relentless pursuit of innovation, creativity, and world-class education. The LVS community takes immense pride in this recognition and remains committed to empowering students to become thoughtful leaders and changemakers in an ever-evolving world.

A proud moment for the entire Litera Valley School, Patna family!

Costume Carnival

The interschool Fancy Dress Competition

On 11th October 2025, DPS Patna East hosted an exciting Fancy Dress competition, "Costumania"—the ultimate platform for students to dress up and educate the audience on the theme "Mother Nature." Keeping the theme in mind, students were encouraged to create outfits using waste materials and showcase creativity in the most innovative way.

Multiple schools participated in this interschool event, and Litera Valley School proudly joined the competition with our talented students, accompanied by our escort teachers Pritha Ma'am and Deb Sir.

Our super-creative and talented students from grades 3 to 5 graced the stage with their outstanding performance by securing the first position

- Maan Kabra – Grade 3C
- Anshita Shrivastav – Grade 4D
- Paakhi Jaiswal – Grade 5C
- Anmol Kumar – Grade 5E

They showcased extraordinary talent with crisp performance speeches and innovative outfits, leaving everyone in awe.

4 girls from grades 3 to 5 participated and collectively won the Gold Medal in Fancy Dress.

Parth Kant and Anushka secured 2 Gold Medals in Still Life Painting.

1 Silver Medal in Clay Modelling was bagged by Om Pratik- IV B

Empathy in Action: Lighting lives

As a part of our social responsibility, we at LVS took a step towards spreading kindness on October 14th. The school organized a meaningful initiative to support visually disabled children from Bihar Naitraheen Parishad, Patna. Students bought voluntary contributions to purchase handmade candles created by these children. All proceeds were donated to help underprivileged students. The initiative beautifully reflected empathy, awareness, and the true spirit of giving.

A Partnership towards Students' Success

Litera Valley School organised a parent-teacher meeting on Saturday, 11th October, 2025, for classes 6-12 from 7:30 a.m. to 10:30 a.m. The meeting provided a valuable opportunity for parents and teachers to discuss the child's progress and address any concerns. The main objective of the PTM was to discuss the overall progress of the students — not just in academics, but also in co-curricular activities and personal development. The environment was both formal and friendly, encouraging open communication. Parents shared valuable feedback and suggestions, which were noted by the staff for further improvement. Teachers, on the other hand, guided parents on how to help their children at home — especially in maintaining discipline, managing time, and developing study habits. The meeting concluded on a positive note, with renewed commitment from both teachers and parents to work together for the betterment of students.

Deutsch Fest 2025

Ein Tag voller Freude und Kultur!

LVS was filled with colours, music, and excitement as the school celebrated Deutsch Fest 2025, a wonderful day dedicated to the German language and culture. The event began with a vibrant band performance, filling the air with rhythm, energy, and enthusiasm, as Musik verbindet Herzen (music connects hearts). The dance performances followed, full of grace and charm, expressing Lebensfreude (the joy of life) through every move.

Students showcased their brilliance in the Deutsch Spell Bee and the German Information Contest (GIC), where confidence and knowledge shone brightly. The Halloween Fashion Show and Poster Presentations displayed immense creativity and imagination, while the Cuisine Presentation offered a delightful Geschmack von Deutschland (taste of Germany).

The day concluded with the Prize Distribution Ceremony, celebrating the hard work, enthusiasm, and talent of all participants. Deutsch Fest 2025 was successfully organized by Aditya Bhadani, Saanvi Sinha, Sameer Anand, Lovisha Sinha, Atharva Raj, Aditya Sir, and Monalisha Ma'am, whose teamwork, dedication, and planning made the event memorable for everyone. The constant encouragement and guidance of Principal Sir played a vital role in helping the school move forward with confidence, creativity, and unity.

It was not just a celebration, but a journey of learning, joy, and togetherness, reminding everyone that “Sprache ist der Schlüssel zur Welt” — Language is the key to the world.

Young Minds at Work - Innovation Day

Litera Valley School, Patna, celebrated its Annual Innovation Day on 11th October, inspiring students to explore and apply scientific knowledge. The event was inaugurated by Principal Mr. Desmond Jude D'Monte and Headmistress Ms. Sujata Bhadani, who encouraged students to think creatively and experiment beyond textbooks.

~ WHEN IDEAS CAME ALIVE

- Classes 6–8 presented innovative projects under the Viksit Bharat Campaign, blending creativity with social awareness.
- Classes 9–12 stole attention with an electrifying Robo Race, featuring robots designed and built entirely by them.
- The event was efficiently led by Head Boy Aditya Kumar Azad, along with Mr. Girindra Jha, Mr. Rajesh Kumar, Ms. Manisha Soni, and Mr. Anindya Chatterjee.

~ THE THRILL OF CREATION

- Some of the most fascinating models included Rainwater Harvesting Systems, Solar Cars, Hydro-Energy Setups, and detailed replicas of Chandrayaan and PSLV Rockets.
- The Robo Race emerged as the highlight, as the self-made robots skillfully tackled sharp turns, uneven paths, and tricky obstacles.
- Judges appreciated the creativity, teamwork, and technical skill behind each display, rewarding the most outstanding ideas.
- Parents admired the confidence, clarity, and originality displayed by the young innovators.

The event concluded on an inspiring note, reminding every student that innovation begins with imagination and grows through effort.

Strings of imagination

The air in the Shanti Niwas auditorium was filled with an electricity that only pure magic can create. Students at Litera Valley School were transported into a world of captivating narratives during a mesmerizing puppet show. The captivating puppet show for students of classes 4 to 7 organized by Dolls Theatre featured a powerful story titled “Taming of the Wild”. The show was directed by the renowned puppeteer Mr. Sudip Gupta. The play used the metaphor of a loving fish family and an evil angler to teach students about the importance of family values, unity and teamwork in overcoming challenges, fostering a love of learning, and promoting sustainability and environmental conservation.

Litera Valley School has consistently incorporated creative and interactive learning methods to inspire young minds. This performance, part of the school's innovative approach to education was a vibrant reminder that some of the most powerful lessons are taught not from a textbook but from stage.

The event was more than just entertainment. It was an interactive masterclass in storytelling and imagination. The performance was a skillful blend of vibrant visuals and evocative music that enthralled students from the first scene to the final bow. The students carried with them not only happy memories but also invaluable lessons that will last a lifetime.

Inauguration of the Infinity Pool

A New Splash Zone for Our Junior Students

The much-awaited Infinity Pool was inaugurated on 11th of October at Litera Valley School, Patna, marking a joyful milestone in the school's commitment to holistic development and student well-being. Designed especially for junior students, the pool combines fun, fitness, and safety in one facility.

The Inauguration Ceremony was graced by our honourable Chairman Sir, Chairperson Ma'am along with Principal Sir, staff members and enthusiastic young swimmers. The ribbon-cutting ceremony was followed by a lively water show, where students showcased their excitement through fun splashes and playful races.

Complementing our existing 25 metre pool, the Infinity Pool turns out to be a perfect destination for beginners at the sport. Experienced swimming instructors will guide students through engaging lessons, helping them build confidence in the water while promoting physical health and coordination.

In his address, Chairman Sir expressed his delight saying, "Today they swim 15 metres, tomorrow they'll conquer the English Channel!"

The event concluded with cheers and laughter as the first group of junior swimmers took their inaugural dip in the pool. The Infinity Pool promises to be a hub of joy, energy, and learning for years to come.

Festivals make life bright and meaningful. Diwali teaches us to celebrate good over evil, spread happiness, and strengthen bonds with family and friends. It also reminds us to light up our lives with positivity and hope. Chhath Puja reminds us to show devotion, be thankful to the Sun God, and respect nature. It also inspires us to lead a life of purity, patience, and gratitude. Let's enjoy these festivals and keep their true spirit alive.
