Tana Bana: Woven in Rhythm, Rooted in Values

“Where dharma guides action and courage finds expression, the spirit of the Mahabharata lives on.”

Echoing this timeless message, Litera Valley School witnessed the vibrant unfolding of Tana Bana, a spectacular Annual Cultural Function that celebrated creativity, culture, and collaboration. The evening began on an auspicious note with a warm welcome and inspiring addresses by the Chairman Mr. Amit Prakash, Chairperson Ms. Anjali Singh, Principal Mr. Desmond Jude D'Monte, and Headmistress Ms. Sujata Bhadani, setting an enthusiastic tone for the programme.

The stage came alive with a series of captivating performances, including Live Art, Live Band, Choir Singing, Western dance, yoga presentations, and thematic dances. The soulful Ganpati dance invoked divine grace.

The powerful Mahabharata segment—enriched with narration, music, and expressive choreography—beautifully conveyed timeless values of courage, righteousness, and dharma.

A vibrant Western dance performance featuring a fusion of styles, including krumping, Shuffle, Hip-hop, Locking and Popping. Student leadership shone through confident addresses by the Head Girl, Vice Head Girl, and Vice Literary Secretary. The gala round and the patriotic rendition of Vande Mataram stirred deep emotions of national pride, leaving the audience spellbound.

The celebration concluded with a heartfelt Vote of Thanks, a memorable Gala Round, and the National Anthem, marking the event as a true reflection of artistic excellence, discipline, and teamwork.

Zest of Germany, on our land

We Literians, at the Litera Valley School, don't just learn the language; we also immerse ourselves in the beauty and the culture of where it comes from! At the Inter-School German Festival held in DPS East, Patna, our students proved this statement with all the accuracy! Our students secured the first place in the German cuisine making competition, as their presentation of the delicacies from Germany did not fail to leave the judges impressed with the flavours!

Our students also came up as the runner-up team in the German film making competition, the cinematography, the emotions and the storyline were heartwarming!

Die Litera Valley School ist außerordentlich stolz auf die Leistungen ihrer Schüler.

Where knowledge and fun collaborated THE HINDU YOUNG WORLD QUIZ

On 6th of December 2025, the third version of “The Hindu Young World Quiz” was held at the Chandra Gupta Institute of Management, with the visionary idea of ‘The Hindu’ in association with ‘The State Bank of India’.

Students from various schools in Patna participated with great enthusiasm and an abundance of knowledge. Teamed up, hyped and with their minds on the go to think of the answers to the questions which were all ready to test their grasp over the ‘whys’ and ‘hows’ of the world.

The venue was filled with students beaming with so much excitement, and the students of Litera Valley School too participated with great passion and drive!

There were two categories for the whole event,

.Category 1 for classes 4 to 6

.Category 2 for classes 7 to 9

With a total of 2 students together to form a team. Our school sent five teams for each category.

Despite the fact that our teams didn’t win this time, our young learners took away many new lessons that will help them in future and really valuable memories that they will always treasure.
